

Why you would even consider adopting a law anything less than the one by the State of Indiana is beyond me. Before this law was adopted I had been harrassed and even threatened by tele-marketers, yes physically threatened when I tried to get rid of them. If you decide to approve this please forward your telephone number to the above e-mail address so I can forward the calls I get to you.
Thanks